I just received the package you sent me today and I just want to say thank you so much out here every package counts while most people think packages are insignificant for us in the field it is the one thing that brings up our morale and lets us know people do care what we are doing out here and are behind us so I just want to say thank you it meant a whole lot to get that package and it thanks to you and the people worried about us out here they are all amazing people. God bless there hearts.
